To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to write a letter in support of Terry Carter. I have known Terry personally and professionally for a very long time. He is a very dependable vendor and outstanding individual. He is willing to go the extra mile in making and keeping his customers happy.

I am responsible for ordering office supplies and handling any printer/copier issues for the Clerk's Office, which employs 40 individuals. With a department this size, we can sometimes run out of toner and not realize it. When this happens, Terry has been able to come to our aid with same day delivery as the order was placed. If there is ever any problems with a product purchased, Terry corrects the issue. When there is any kind of problems with our printers and our Information Technology staff cannot correct it, Terry is the individual they call. His service is outstanding and his prices are hard to beat.

Terry would be a tremendous asset as a vendor for your company and has my highest recommendation. If you have further questions with regard to his work ethic, please do not hesitate to call me.

Sincerely,
